

LAND DEAL REVIEWED IN REPORT

Insurance Commission, Recently Presented to Federal House—Page, Fowler, Bennet Lefurgey Syndicate's Manipulation Shown in Unpleasant Light, Eastern Edition, Feb. 25, 1907.

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—The insurance report which was brought down yesterday comprises some 500 typewritten pages and anything approaching a comprehensive review is impossible until it has been printed. In the meantime the following paragraphs from the Citizen, the Conservative organ here, deal with some phases of considerable public interest to

The long-looked-for report of the insurance commission was tabled in the House yesterday. It is a voluminous one, consisting of some 500 typewritten pages, in which is reviewed the evidence taken before the commission, the comments it plenty upon the end of it, vigorous reamours of certain parties, whose connection with insurance funds' investments have come un-press review during recent months, and recommendations for improvements in the insurance act for the better protection of policy holders.

THE SPECULATIVE QUARTETTE.

Great interest naturally attaches to the report as far as it deals with Messrs. Foster, Fowler and others, and the Independent Order of Foresters. After describing the Union Trust company as "undoubtedly formed to bank in speculative transactions," commissioners say:--

SECURITIES COST $100,000 ABOVE VALUE.
The Union Trust company became great engine of investment for the investors. No limitation upon investment was made with reference to the insurance act so far as the securities

Foresters took the form of capital bank. The operations of the company were bold and multifarious, embracing timber limits, saw mills, western lands, United States railway securities, real estate, and loans and other assistance to officers in their private speculations." The company held on December 31, 1905, United States railway and land securities at a cost of $440,119.

the report proceeds to give the par-

March, 1902, and the conveyance of lands purchased to the Union Trust company in trust. It mentions that "in connection with the purchase of the Carver lands, a commission of $19,000 due by the vendors to one Fritch— their agent. Of this commission Foster received one-half, or five thousand dollars, causing a cheque the Union Trust company to be paid to his order for the amount, and deducting it from the first payment to the vendors. This, he said, he divided equally among the members of the syndicate and he spoke of it as a reduction in price by reason of his efforts in the price war. He said that he was not a commission man but rather than as a commission man. The report says, "assuming the money so represented a reduction in price, it

... difficult, in view of the trust upon which the Union Trust company, to its managing director's knowledge, held the funds, to understand the division of any portion of them among the bearing syndicates. What the moneys deposited with him for was to purchase land to add to the security held by the I. O. F."

"this amount was not divided with other members of the syndicate, but offered to be held to await a final amount of their accounts later on. It apparently anywhere on deposit or marked in any tangible form, and its disposition to either the private account

ative view both these instances
be treated from the standpoint
uty of Mr. Foster to his employer,

Union Trust company. His right

iticism applied by Mr. Stevenson in correspondence with the chancellor
Foster's proposal to receive com-

on purchases made by the Union company, to which principals Mr.
professed to have given his cheer-
and immediate adhesion.

NEWS FROM STRATHCONA

COUNCIL DO BUT LITTLE BUSINESS

The Fire Brigade By-Law Given Second and Third Readings and Adopted With Amendments—Petitions for New Sidewalks Were Presented.

At the regular monthly meeting of Srathcona town council, last night there was little business of importance transacted. It was 8:30 when the board got to work and almost eleven before adjournment. The mayor presided and Counsellors J. H. McKeen, Crawford and Rankin were present.

A large number of communications were read and filed. They included letters from River Road Fire Insurance Co., Brandon; P. W. Jones, Calgary, applying for position at power house; Canadian Working house, acknowledging receipt of cheque; R. H. Walter, Winnipeg, inquiring who the architect of the new hospital was; A. L. Collins, Winnipeg, in the numbering of houses in the town; Flash Lane Co., offering quotations on asphalt tanks; and from S. W. Williams, Montreal, offering designs for steel work in new hospital.

Petitions were read and new valuations on parts of Hardy and Anderson avenues and referred to public works committee for report. The hospital, sanitation and relief committee submitted a report with reference to George Turner, Winnipeg, who is now in Srathcona and wants the town to purchase him transportation to Winnipeg. The committee was given power to act.

The proposed fire brigade by-law was given second and third readings and adopted with some slight amendments. The purchase of wooden pipe from the Canadian Pipe Co. was cancelled on the ground that the water and waterworks committee for further investigation.

Council adjourned.

MR. HOBSON IS ANGRY.

Some time ago P. W. Hobson, engineer at the light and power plant tendered his resignation to take effect at the end of a month's time. The light and power committee of the town council were instructed to arrange for his remaining in charge till April 1st, but a hot letter from Mr. Hobson read at last night's meeting showed that he had no intention of doing so. Mr. Hobson stated that he resented the recent action of the mayor and council in allowing engineers to come in and make examination without notifying him of such an intention. He felt the insult very keenly and particularly when those who reported on the supposed defective parts were inferior in experience to himself. His appeal to be relieved before March 15th as his notice to the council would have been fully served by that time. The letter was referred to the fire and light committee.

FOR EARLY CLOSING.

At the meeting of the town council last night Councilor Crawford gave notice that at next meeting he would introduce a by-law to repeal the early closing by-law. He did not state whether it would be repealed in toto or only with reference to the grocers.

TO NUMBER STREETS.

In all probability Srathcona will shortly have her streets numbered in rotation instead of named as at present. Mayor Mills and Councilor J. H. McKeen have been unable to come for the property they contemplated buying but now have another site in view and will shortly, in all probability, close the deal. Mr. Bailey recently wrote that the town take action and shortly and Mayor Mills' report stating the circumstances.

THE PROPOSED SOAP WORKS.

For some time the deal with W. L. Bailey who proposes to establish soap works at Srathcona has been in motion. The industrial committee of the council who have had the question in hand were unable to come for the property they contemplated buying but now have another site in view and will shortly, in all probability, close the deal. Mr. Bailey recently wrote that the town take action and shortly and Mayor Mills' report stating the circumstances.

HORTEN-MITCHELL WEDDINGS.

There took place at the King Edward Hotel at 1:30 this afternoon the wedding of Mr. L. Horton, of the Vegreville Observer, to Miss Mitchell of Winnipeg. The ceremony took place in the parlor of the hotel which had been charmingly decorated with flowers and plants. Rev. W. P. Galt of Vegreville officiated at the service. The bride who was daintily attired in a blue cloth travelling costume and carried a handsome bride bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss McDonald of Winnipeg as bridesmaid. Mr. A. H. Mitchell of Vegreville acted as groomsmen. After the wedding a delightful repast was partaken of by the bridal party in the private dining-room at the hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Horton will leave by the C.N.R. tonight for Vegreville, the wedding-trip to be later.

the annual house cleaning is completed the number will be more than cut in two.

Ald. Walker, Anderson and Smith spoke in favor of the scheme submitted by the commissioners, but when the motion was put to vote Ald. Poirer, Messrs. Daly and MacCaulay ranged upon the other side.

When the motion was defeated the mayor pointed out that it was up to the council as a matter of policy to devise ways and means of taking care of the scavenging work of the city.

Ald. Poirer said the work should be done by contract, and he moved that tenders be called for the scavenging of the whole city. The motion was passed, the matter being left in the hands of the commissioners to frame the specifications on which the tenders should be let.

Fidler's Letter

The following letter has been received by A. D. Fidler, the Calgary business manager, from a Medicine Hat fan, and shows the outlook in the town is very bright.

We have formed a joint stock company called Medicine Hat Athletic Co., Limited, and capitalized it at $10,000. We have sold 10,000 worth of stock, and have already some $2,000 in the treasury. We intend to purchase our own ground, fence and grand stands to date; so you see we are leaving busy although we did not advertise much.

We think we are getting a good team together, and also think we are getting a better one, not much but just enough to make it interesting as well as a dead cinch. We have the pole for the flag on order. What did you let all those good players you wintered for? Are they too slow for you? If so, suppose they will do for Edmonton or Lethbridge. (Too bad).

POULTRY AND DOG SHOW ON

Entries Exceed All Former Years in all Classes--Program of Lectures for the Week--First Session on Thursday.

The big warehouse of the Great West Implement Co. on Fraser avenue was a busy place this morning on the occasion of the opening annual exhibition of the Alberta Poultry Association and Dog Show in conjunction with the first provincial and fair. With the cackling and crowing of the fowls and the barking and howling of the dogs, the old building presented a scene of unusual animation and bustle.

About seventy-five dogs are entered for the dog show and it seemed this morning as if all the dogs in Edmonton came to pay their respects to their canine friends. The smallest dog in the show is a little King Charles spaniel and a favorite with all the visitors and the small boy in particular. The largest dog is a huge bull terrier colored wolfhound, bearing the true mark of the chase. He is the quietest dog in the show, lying in his corner with a look of unquestionable disdain at the other dogs making over him as set up for the public gaze.

One of the most noticeable exhibits is made up by A. D. Wilson of the Vancouver Kennel, Nanaimo. Mr. Wilson brought a magnificent of collies, seven in all of the best collie blood known to the dog fancier.

The Poultry Show. Exhibitors in this section represent every portion of the province as far south as Lethbridge and as far east as Vermilion. Entries have come so thick that it was found necessary to increase the accommodation today. This exhibition is the best ever held in the province, both in the number of entries, the variety and general excellence of the exhibits. Every variety of poultry is represented. One of the most noticeable pens in the whole show contains five white Orpingtons, the only ones in the province. They are exceedingly well shaped and thrifty looking birds. A number of the entries are made by the ladies.

The judging commenced at one p.m. today and will last till noon tomorrow. The doors will be closed during the judging and will be open today from six to ten p.m. tomorrow from noon to six p.m. and on Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A poultryman's convention will be held in connection with the show, the program of which is as follows: 1st Session, Thursday, March 7th, 8 p.m. Lecture by Mr. A. W. Foley on relationship of poultry fancier to poultry commercial industry and grain building.

2nd Session, 8 p.m. Subjects on poultry houses and fixtures, artificial incubation, marketing, preparations, etc. Illustrated by time-light slides by Mr. Foley. Address by Geo. Harcourt, Deputy Minister of Agriculture.

3rd Session, Friday, March 8th, 8 p.m. Address by Mr. Foley on egg production, fattening for market and awarding of general questions from audience.

The afternoon sessions will be held in the city council chamber. The session on Saturday evening will be in the room occupied for the best grain exhibit in the Great West building.

Another Hockey Tangle

The semi-final game, High School vs. Intermediate, in the city league last night ended very satisfactorily and the executive of the association will probably have to meet to straighten out the tangle.

The final score was 5-1 in favor of the Intermediate, but the High School claim the Intermediate winning goal was scored after the half-time whistle should have blown.

The reason the lines did not sound the alarm was due to the fact that the referee was not provided with either whistle or bell and the stop signal was given by a high school supporter jumping on the ice and notifying the referee.

The game was not advertised and the attendance was small. Charlie Collins made a fair return, but C. Blomfield was too easy as judge of play.

It is altogether likely the game will be under re-played. It is possible, too, that the High School may have to re-play Saturday's game. The former have protested the contest on the ground that full time was not played.

The only complete and perfect food is milk. It is a flesh-former and heat makers in the right proportions properly balanced.

Milk taken every morning and evening in conjunction with Orange Marmalade, according to Prof. Harcourt's determination, is 50% more valuable as a food than bread, supplies the most perfect and evenly balanced food that human subject can secure. Build up children on Nature's food.

THE LICENSE LAW.

The amendments to the license law introduced in the legislature last week, W. C. C. plans Alberta in the forefront of the provinces of Canada in another branch of progressive legislation. The thing made clear in the law is that the unlicensed sale of liquor will not be tolerated. There is no appeal from a conviction for sale of liquor by persons not licensed. This is the death of the blind pig in Alberta.

Another feature is the difficulty under which a new license can be obtained. Alberta has today fewer liquor licenses according to population than Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan or British Columbia and the provisions under which a new license can be obtained ensures first-class hotel accommodation for the public. The amendments also make the duties of the license inspectors and commissioners clearer and place the responsibility of a thorough enforcement of the law upon the officers appointed for that purpose.

The law now requires that no license can be granted in a place with less than fifty bona fide residences in an area of 500 acres, while formerly only twenty houses were required in 100 acres. This amendment gives total prohibition to all the rural parts of the province and prevents for ever, what was a fruitful source of evil in Ontario, the corner tavern. A clause also provides that the issuance of a bar-room near either a church or school shall not be experienced in Alberta.

The restrictions as to the number of licenses are more stringent than those of Ontario. Only one license shall be granted for a population of 500, two for 1,000 population and one for each additional 1,000, which means that this province will be much freer from places where liquor is sold than the other provinces are even after years of reduction in their license privileges. The proper sanitary conditions in hotels are provided for and in the law is granted except where the hotel complies with the law in accommodation and other specifications. The amendments as presented are in keeping with the legislative record of the Alberta government. The bill is still in the committee stage and some further amendments may be incorporated in it before it finally passes the legislature.

THE GAME LAW.

The game bill is the most contentious one before the legislature. Mr. Finlay has his own time trying to pilot it through the house, but he takes the discussion with characteristic Irish good humor. The clause that created most trouble was the one requiring a gun license to shoot. Frank Walker was waiting for it and when he got after it the shot flew like the proverbial brickman's fight with the wild cat; J. B. Holden was sharpening a long knife with which to carve it when Frank got through and J. B. Beale got up to oppose it with a "Halt-it-to-day-or-die-in-the-attempt look on his face."

W. C. Simons came to the rescue of the law as also did W. F. Puffer, while Hubert and Robertson looked on in wondering silence. The game law always was a bone of contention. Every man who ever shot a duck knows exactly how and when it should be shot and well the other fellows don't know. The whole thing will be good naturedly worked out alright though and when the combined wisdom of our law-makers has been expended upon this question some old fellow with a long double-barrelled gun will still be able to point out that the game act will still stand a few amendments to bring it up to his ideal.

NO WONDER THEY THREATENED

The extracts from the Insurance Commission published in another column make clear the reasons for the concern of certain opposition gentlemen in parliament a few days since. A fortnight ago Mr. Purser, of Kings, and Albert, N.B., made a demonstration in connection with the detained Gits what would happen if any of them dared mention his western head and timber transactions in the House. They were facing with a head-hay he would have them understood, and a business like one at that, and if any ill-advised member to the speaker's right displayed undue familiarity the government and its following would be rapidly reduced to a mere handful (Purser) was impatiently waiting till some rash rash across the floor should precipitate the avalanche. Then it would become his cheerful and unimpaired duty to call down the contempt of humanity upon those who sat in high places, and vigorous liberalism would be left to weep in sackcloth and ashes for those who were no more.

Remember the House refused to be impressed with the sense of impending danger and two days later the restaurant business arose and called upon Mr. Purser to stamp and the talk of his wrath. If there was a landslide lurking in the vicinity Mr. Rousseau wanted to see it. He was from Lethbridge and had to be "showed." If the House were really threatened by an explosion of such destructive power it were better to have it quelled and end the suspense. But the balmy spirit had departed the highland for Purser and the encouraging indications of Rousseau could not even produce a "fix." A like millions of manner had suddenly inspired his associate in crime, and Rousseau, Foster and Leferrier with guileless mien and fingers crossed, with great reasonableness in manner and honest passion in word, said with their faces for legions. The House should remember that a member's private business transactions were no affair of the public, though he Mr. Foster admitted, you cannot altogether distinguish between private character and public position. Nor were their glass in vain, and the Liberal members, forgetting that this same quartette contains the most deliriously and personally abusive members in the House, have made no allusion since to the business dealings of those gentlemen.

The Insurance Report simply reveals why these opposition gentlemen were so concerned either to terrify or cajole the members of the House. Any one would pray for mercy with a record like that before the public.

C.P.R. LAND EXEMPT.

The Dominion government has been advised by cable that the judicial committee of the privy council refused the application of the Dominion to appeal in the case of the taxation of C. P. R. lands. A lost case was submitted to the Canadian courts as to whether C. P. R. lands in Manitoba and the Northwest could be taxed within the 20 year period provided in the charter.

The Manitoba court held in favor of the C. P. R. with the exception of the taxation of school lands in the Northwest. The Supreme Court also decided in favor of the C. P. R. The Dominion made an application to appeal to the judicial committee of the Privy Council, and this application has been refused. This is another reminder of how much the C. P. R. owes to the old regime, and how much the west owes to both.

Presenting Law And Order In The North Land

Ottawa, Feb. 28.—The annual report of the Royal North West Mounted Police for the year ending on the 31st of December is an enjoyable reading. To him who knows the life of the police in the north and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north, the report is not only a pleasure, but a revelation. The report is a record of the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north, and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north.

They pushed up the Peace River, and although the ice was running strong against them, they reached Fort Graham. During the winter they made extensive trips into the interior, and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north, and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north.

for the winter, and on the 28th, it was followed by another of three men and three horses. One officer, H.C. officers and constables and 13 horses remained at Fort Graham for the winter, where they are comfortably quartered and well supplied with provisions, but in serious want for clothing. The clothing was supplied in good time, but only through the kindness of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north, and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north.

the report. The R.N.W.M.P. is a body of soldier-politicians, one thousand strong, who uphold the law and maintain order in all the unorganized territory of Canada, and in the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan. The investigation placed upon their duty is very liberal and whatever kind of law is to be maintained is the subject of their attention. The annual report is an unimpeachable record of how this duty has been fulfilled. It opens with a summary of the general operations by the Commissioner, followed by detailed reports from the officers commanding the several districts. The Commissioner's report, in the present volume, very well suggests the broad scope of the police's duty. He begins by pointing out the work in the more settled and better known portions of the west, the report has the significant sub-headings "The Peace River Teton Trail," "The Work in the Arctic," "Hudson's Bay," "Northern Alberta," "This summarizes the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north, and the work of the men who are the backbone of the law in the north."

On July 27, Inspector Camille took command from Inspector Richards, who was relieved at his own request, because of bad health. I wish to bring to your notice the excellent work of Inspector Richards while in command. He exhibited ability and perseverance, and is deserving of special commendation. The work was continued with energy, and on August 21, the trail was completed to Fort Graham, 224 miles from Fort St. John. The party was now split up, part to continue the trail west, and the remainder were employed building barracks and setting hay for the winter. The last report received was dated September 25, in which Inspector Camille states he had completed the trail 29 miles west of Fort Graham towards the mouth of the Peace River. On September 19, a party of six men and twenty three horses left for Peace River Landing, it having been found impossible to cut sufficient hay for the winter, and on the 28th, it was followed by another of three men and three horses. One officer, H.C. officers and constables and 13 horses remained at Fort Graham for the winter, where they are comfortably quartered and well supplied with provisions, but in serious want for clothing. Preserving Law And Order work, there is no mischief, although the men are often met through a few minutes after leaving camp in the morning for their work, and returning to the same condition of night. The route of the trail from Port Graham on, was the subject of much controversy. The government formation of northern British Columbia, Superintendent Sanders was ordered to Hamilton, in the event of conditions along the government trail line to the Yukon and to see what was the facilities for provisions and forage.

A trail was ordered to proceed from White Horse to Hamilton to report upon the route. Superintendent Sanders, with two men and eight ponies, left White Horse on July 1, and arrived at Hamilton on the 10th, having travelled upwards of 60 miles.

It is considered advisable to cut a trail from Port Graham to Cabin No. 8 on the telephone line, as the route, supplies could be easily obtained from Hamilton and Telegraph Creek, both points being connected by river boats with coast ports and also connection is had with the telephone stations.

Country between Port Graham and Cabin No. 8 is unknown, and it is considered a practicable route may not be found. It is also a trail from Inverness to Hamilton.

WITNESS THE PHALANX IN THE NORTH.

Inspector Howard and the detachment of the 1st Canadian Mounted Rifles, en route to the Arctic region, arrived at Hamilton on the 10th. The phalanx, which was composed of the 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st,
